

Beacon Offshore Ltd., conducts its business in a legal and ethical manner. Company officers, employees, agents, sub-contractors and other associated persons acting on Beacon Offshore's behalf are responsible for acting honestly and with integrity by ensuring that their activities, interests and behaviors do not conflict with this Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy.

This policy, based on the Thai anti-bribery legislation*, requires that personnel must not either directly or indirectly:

A) Offer, give, solicit or accept any bribe, either in cash or any other form of inducement, to or from any person or company, wherever they are located and whether they are a public official or body, or private person or company.

B) Gain or retain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage through unethical or illegal means when conducting business on behalf of Beacon Offshore or its subsidiaries.

Personnel and associated persons must understand and strictly comply with the anti-bribery laws in all countries where Beacon Offshore conducts its business.

* Act Supplementing the Constitution Relating to the Prevention and Suppression of Corruption B.E. 2561 (2018)

.....
Claus Jorgensen
BOL Managing Director
16 Oct 2020